(c) Corporate Social Responsibility, Ethics and Integrity

The CEO should:

- (a) foster a corporate culture that promotes ethical and responsible practices and decision making; and
- (b) take all reasonable steps to satisfy the Board as to the integrity of the CEO and the other senior officers and ensure that a culture of integrity is created throughout the Corporation.

(d) Governance

The CEO should:

- (a) communicate in a timely fashion with the Board on all material matters affecting the Corporation, present to the Board for consideration all material transactions not contemplated in the strategic plan and budget approved by the Board, all transactions having a value in excess of $200,000 not in the ordinary course of business (unless contemplated in the strategic plan and budget approved by the Board) and all related party transactions (within the meaning of Applicable Laws) involving the Corporation;
- (b) communicate regularly with the Board on the performance of the Corporation and ensure that the Board is provided with the information and access to senior officers necessary to fulfill the responsibilities of the Board; and
- (c) assist the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee with the development of mandates for the Board and the committees of the Board and in the orientation of new directors and continuing education for all directors.

(e) Disclosure

The CEO should ensure a system is established to ensure appropriate and timely public disclosure of material information with respect to the business and affairs of the Corporation.

(f) Strategic Planning

The CEO should recommend strategic, operating and financial plans to the Board and ensure that such plans, once approved, are implemented, and report on the progress made and material deviations from such plans to the Board in a timely manner.

(g) Business Management

The CEO should:

- (a) provide general management of the day-to-day operation of the business and affairs of the Corporation, consistent with the decisions of the Board; and
- (b) direct and monitor the activities and utilization of the resources of the Corporation consistent with the strategic direction of the Corporation and the then strategic, operating and financial plan approved by the Board.

(h) Risk Management

The CEO should:

- (a) ensure that appropriate systems are in place to identify and manage the business risks of the Corporation and that such risks have been presented to, and reviewed with, the Audit Committee and the Board;

- (b) participate in the establishment of appropriate policies and procedures to ensure the accuracy, completeness, integrity and appropriate disclosure of the financial statements and other financial information of the Corporation in accordance with Applicable Laws; and
- (c) together with the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation, establish and maintain (i) internal controls over financial reporting, (ii) disclosure controls and procedures, and (iii) processes for the certification of public disclosure documents, in each case in accordance with all Applicable Laws through appropriate policies and procedures.

(i) Organizational Effectiveness/Succession

The CEO should:

- (a) develop and maintain a strong organization with the right people in the right positions that can effectively accomplish the strategic objectives of the Corporation;
- (b) ensure that the Corporation has an effective management team, that the Board has regular exposure to the senior officers and that there exists an effective plan for management development and succession; and
- (c) recommend appointments as senior officers, monitor the performance of the senior officers and provide feedback and training as appropriate.

(j) Compensation

The CEO should meet at least once annually with the Compensation Committee to discuss goals and objectives for, and the performance of, the other senior officers of the Corporation and to make a recommendation on their compensation.

(k) CEO Performance

The CEO should participate in the discussions concerning any amendments to be made to this mandate and in the annual performance measures for the CEO.
